

SENATOR NORE: What is the differential, Senator Proud, on an automobile or a tractor in the state of Nebraska on freight.

SENATOR PROUD: I haven't the slightest idea, Senator.

SENATOR NORE: There isn't any.

SENATOR PROUD: Just a minute. Repeat that question.

SENATOR NORE: There isn't any differential. Your freight is the same all over the state from the company.

SENATOR PROUD: Why did you ask the question, then, if you knew the answer.

SENATOR NORE: I just wondered if you knew.

SENATOR PROUD: All right. All right. What's the differential on hauling corn. I asked Senator Nore the question.

SENATOR NORE: In Genoa, Nebraska, it is a cent a bushel difference from there into Fullerton and on up the line.

SENATOR PROUD: How far up the line.

SENATOR NORE: That's as far as I know, up to Spalding.

SENATOR PROUD: Now I will ask you another question. How about cobs? Hauling cobs?

SENATOR NORE: I don't know.

SENATOR PROUD: Thank you.

SPEAKER: Senator Schmit. I guess you have a different light on, Senator Schmit. The chair recognizes Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I want a Record Vote only of those Senators outstate who don't like me anyway. The licensee, they hate you.

SPEAKER: Are you ready for the question. Those in favor of the question vote aye. Those opposed vote nay. Senator Whitney voting aye.

SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, I'd ask unanimous consent to have my name added to the bill, as the introducer.
